Press Release

US COURT OF APPEALS HAS UPHELD DEBT RESOLVE'S PATENT, NO. 6,330,551

White Plains, New York (August 6, 2007) – Debt Resolve, Inc. (AMEX: DRV), announced today that in the case of Cybersettle, Inc. vs. National Arbitration Forum, Inc. [2007-1092], the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in a decision dated July 24, 2007, held that the asserted claims of US Patent No. 6,330,551 ("551 Patent") for online dispute resolution cover the submission of multiple rounds and offers that may be compared and tested at any time and directed that National Arbitration Forum submit to further proceedings in the District Court on the issue of its infringement. The Court also found that other claims do not have a multiple bid requirement.

This major patent infringement case, titled Cybersettle v. NAF, reaffirms Debt Resolve's patent protection, since Debt Resolve and Cybersettle both have rights under the same patent; Cybersettle for insurance; Debt Resolve for settlement of consumer debt. NAF, which had earlier admitted the validity of those patent claims, is a Minnesota-based company involved in alternative dispute resolution, including settling disputes concerning consumer and commercial debt. Debt Resolve believes that this decision will prevent NAF from entering the Online Dispute Resolution business in the field of consumer collections.

CEO James Burchetta stated: "We were delighted, but not surprised, that the Court reaffirmed the protection provided by Debt Resolve's patent and intellectual property. We applaud and congratulate Cybersettle and await the outcome of the hearing in the District Court on the issue of actual infringement. This is a significant victory that clearly demonstrates the power and breadth of our patents."

Debt Resolve's suite of online collection tools is protected not only by the 551 Patent but also by US Patents 6,954,741 and 6,850,918. The Company intends to continue to vigorously defend its patent and intellectual property rights, which have been granted in numerous countries worldwide, including the UK.
